Takeaways:

- Aaron knew that he was called to drums from an early age. His dreams and his gift didn’t align until you got serious and started to tithe.
- Aaron had to make some changes before the pivot took place in real life.
- Doors won’t open until God has them ready for you to walk through, and you’re prepared for them to open. Aaron got selected to be Usher’s drummer out of 100 audition tapes of drummers.
- God’s moment is different from our moment, but God’s moment is always on time and perfect.
- This season has allowed Aaron to be home more than before and be present with his family, which is a true blessing.
- You can’t allow the world to dictate your pace.

Final Takeaway:

- Aaron is encouraging us to continue to feed your gift until it’s able to feed you.
- Your journey is different, and the timing is different so trust God.

Discussion Questions: (Ask yourself and a friend these questions and answer honestly)

- Have you discerned your gift from God, or is it just the gift you identified?
- In what ways can you and your team help each other lean into the skills that will move you forward in your calling?
